And so four years of educational boot camp have ended, and a lifetime of real-world hardships and adulthood follow (I'm looking at you, IRS)

Oh well. However, I must say that getting up to this point in my life would have been impossible without my mother and father. Those sleepless nights with unfinished Java programs, those days where life seemed to fall apart at the seams... you two brought me out of the darkness, telling me that if I hold out for one more second, it will all get better. And of course, I can't forget my sister for keeping me in high spirits, and making me self-conscious about my fashion sense. (God, this quote is Oprah Winfrey Show material).

To a younger generation: Don't make the same mistakes I did. Learn from the past. My troubles all started in West Philadelphia (born and raised), on a playground where I spent most of my days. Chilling out, maxing, relaxing all cool and just shooting some b-ball outrside of the school when a couple of guys they were up to no good started making trouble in my neighborhood I got in one little fight and my ma got scared and said "you moving with your aunty and uncle in Bell-Air." Mom and Dad: Thanks for everything: of course the "chauffeuring", just for putting up with twins for the past 17 years, but most of all thanks for just being there. Robyn: I'll miss you...all of you...even your singing. Hope we'll see you often. Jeff: There are no words to describe the connection we've shared, and how much I've needed and appreciated that connection. May that connection continue in future.

"Certain things they should stay the way they are. You ought to be able to stick them in one of those big glass cases and just leave them alone." --Holden Caulfield
While we move on, we hope that all our friendships will remain, unchanged.

Mom & Dad: How can I thank you? I don't think I could ever repay all of the opportunities, love and support you gave. Eric: I think you can understand better than I can say how much I've needed you. Thank god for twins... and thank you for everyhing. Robyn: you're kid of the house now (use it wisely). To my teachers, every one of you, thank you for the knowledge you have given and for an amazing time in high school.

A Season for New Traditions

The 2007 Varsity Field Hockey team, led by senior captains Annie Maietta and Elizabeth Russo and junior captain Kelsey Nickerson, was one of incredible unity and pride. It was during this season that Weston proved, time and time again, that the team had regained its winning tradition, and that it was an exception to the all pervading belief in the DCL that such a young team, containing only 5 seniors, could not take on the more experienced teams in the league. Though the tournament ended abruptly in sudden death overtime, Weston Varsity showed the DCL once and for all that it is a team to be reckoned with. The 2007 team will be missed, for, as Coach Laura Galopim put it, "This team has the best dynamic of any I have ever coached; everyone genuinely cares about the game and about each other."

The Weston Wildcats' Volleyball team is a new sport's team in terms of the history of Weston Athletics. The support for the team as well as the enthusiasm which has been exhibited by student-athletes and fans alike has been great. Starting out as a simple idea, the Weston Girls' Volleyball program has stretched from practically an intramural club team to an official Varsity Team. It is a hope of many members of the High School Athletic community that the volleyball program continues to find success!

On the Boys Side, the name of the game was competition and success. With a large and committed squad, the team was able to reach for their goals, collectively and individually.

An Absolute Turkey
A Farce by George Feydeau

Presented by the Weston High Theater Company, this version of the play captures the essence of the author Feydeau: over-the-top obsessions that nearly turn characters into automatons, communication challenges that toy with the inadequacy of language itself, and an unnerving sense that our world could easily slide into an anarchy that churns just below the surface of what we call order. It demanded precision from its performers--and they responded admirably. The action is set in Paris in 1896.

RECOGNITION ADS

It is important that you recognize your progress and take pride in your accomplishments. Share your achievements with others. Brag a little. The recognition and support of those around you is nurturing.

~Rosemarie Rossetti

Nicholas

As you explore life's terrain
Always reach for the next handhold
Let your keen mind and open heart
Find your sure footing
As you climb to the next height

Use your vision to focus on each brick
Then widen your angle to see
Your neighborhood, your city, your world

Build your dream
As you help others build theirs
Your castle has room for
All kinds of people

Open life's map to find your destination
Steer yourself with courage, calm and commitment
Let the journey take you to highways and back roads
Never forget the way home
And the joy your smile brings us

Love,
Mom, Dad, Alex and Zeke

JILLIAN MIZNER

Our Fabulous Daughter,
Your obvious outward beauty pales to your inner beauty. Your passion for living and empathy for others makes a difference in all our lives. Your natural culinary talent, love of children and high ethical standards make us so proud. You have a heart of gold and we love you with all our heart.
Always stay true to yourself.
Mom & Dad

Jilly, I am so proud of you. You have grown into a mature and beautiful adult that is willing to take on the world. Syracuse is so lucky to have you and I am so happy that you are only a short drive away. Even though you are my younger sister, I also look up to you. You are the most amazing sister and I love you always and forever. Dylan

Sara Bendetson

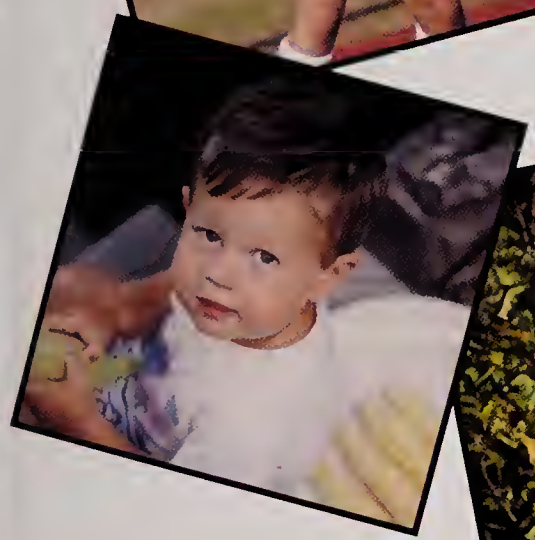
Congratulations! We are so happy for you and we know you will have a wonderful experience at Syracuse, but we will miss you so much next year. The sounds of your laughter and singing, your beautiful smile, your warmth, and you and your friends around the kitchen table are but a few of the things we will miss most. You make us proud and grateful everyday. Remember, where ever you go our love goes with you.

Mom Dad, Sonni, James

Nathan Teplow

Charles Dickens said: "There is a wisdom of the head, and a wisdom of the heart." You have both, Nathan. We have such love and admiration for you. We will always be your fiercest fans and you most steadfast supporters."

Love, Mom, Dad, Alisha, Lily & Harry



Maria Andrea E. Ollen-Smith

We know the sky is the limit for you, Maria, whether literally or figuratively. No matter where you go remember where you came from and the love you have from all of us on 3 continents. Always be your own wonderful self--singing, playing sports, making friends, working hard and being creative with food, clothes, song-writing and more. You can be the bridge between people that you want to be. You have all the qualities necessary: You're smart, talented, personable and "ridiculously good-looking". Follow you own path but stay connected and ask for help when you need it. College will be exciting for you. Explore new things, have fun and be safe.
Love always, Mama, Daddy & James

Life is a journey, it is the path that shapes a person's life. So Jenn smell the roses, be a friend and remember a friend, be a mentor, be strong and most importantly be yourself. Take time to experience; smell the journey. Stand by a friend and never forget when a friend stands by you, no matter what; support the journey. Remembering, Mrs. Hayes, Ms. Fried, Mr. Konsler and Mr. Foley; learn from the journey. Face obstacles, work hard, do your best, be a leader; respect the journey. Continue to light up a room with your smile, your infectious laughter and your quick witted humor, have fun; enjoy the journey. As Mr. Stasik once said to you, "when it is your time, you will dance", Jenn you are ready to dance. You are ready for the journey. Congrats!! Love you big time, Mom and Dad, Sneaks and Thumps.

Nick,

One of 6 and Patrick too! Who else could choose a college based on the area's vertical drop? Unplug the chargers! Not happy with a sport unless the feet are not touching the ground. Attitash, and Winni in the summer. Wayland-Weston Crew: When you need to take a plane to compete you know your hard work had paid off. Traveling makes for great memories - "Are you talking about the Guernica?". Lac Garda - "Ottenerio fuori di questa barc e da questo paes!" Be true to yourself and follow your heart. Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity so keep up the hard work, it has rewards. And most importantly, don't ever forget that we are behind you 110%.

With congratulations and lots of love,

In the name of the best within you, do not sacrifice this world to those who are its worst. In the name of the values that keep you alive, do not let your vision of man be distorted by the ugly, the cowardly, the mindless in those who have never achieved his title. Do not lose your knowledge that man's proper estate is an upright posture, an intransigent mind and a step that travels unlimited roads. Do not let your fire go out, spark by irreplaceable spark, in the hopeless swamps of the approximate, the not-quite, the not-yet, the not-at-all. Do not let the hero in your soul perish, in lonely frustration for the life you deserved, but have never been able to reach. Check your road and the nature of your battle. The world you desire can be won, it exists, it is real, it is possible, it's yours.

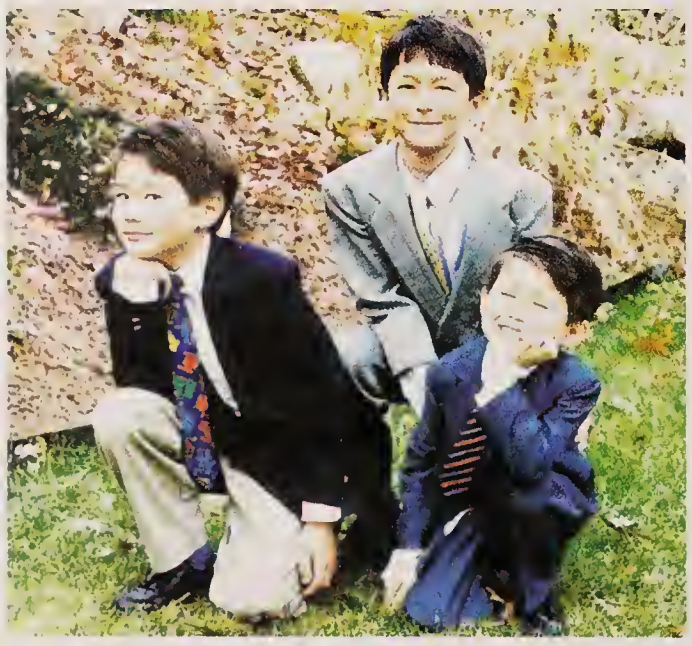
"The Thinker On The Left"



Curiosity and innovation have been your strengths and companions, but promise yourself to always use them with safety in mind.

You've got the discipline and can read the rules. Add perseverance in what you must do, aim high, the highest you possibly can, and you can become a very successful man.

So help you God. With our love and pride,
Your Mom and Dad

Most people know that you are kind, smart and principled. A few also know that your are witty and fun to be with. But it is us, your family, who have been able to witness your courage and resilience. You have been humble in success and strong in adversity. You have learned from both and have become an amazing young woman in the process. We are very proud of you. Mom and Dad

Remember when you convinced me I was from Pluto? I believed you for three years until I read a book about the Solar System and then I realized I had blindly believed you without considering the facts. But I guess that's how much I trust you, enough to believe you when you were telling me that I wasn't from Planet Earth without doubting you for a second. You are the greatest thing to me, even greater than food, Network, music, Harry Potter, chocolate and Dwight Schrute combined. I know you'll have a fantastical time wherever you go and you know you can always call or text me unless Daddy has my phone.

Peace and Love, Bella
